

ETHICS & ECONOMICS 2019 STUDENT ESSAY CONTEST

Ethics and Economics Education of New England (www.e3ne.org) invites New Hampshire residents 18 years of age or younger to submit essays of no more than 2,000 words to info@e3ne.org by July 31, 2019 on the topic,

WHAT IS THE MORAL VALUE OF ECONOMIC GROWTH?

Do individuals, organizations, and governments have any kind of duty to promote or to permit economic growth? Or is growth actually harmful due to the scarce resources it consumes? How should we value the well-being of the present generation relative to the well-being of future generations that growth makes possible? If economic growth does have some value, what concrete steps should we take to achieve it?

Contest entrants are welcome to read the following sources on this topic, as well as others.
